SERS Board covered by SMC Chapter 01.04A Code of Ethics (abridged, [comments] and highlights added):

Section 01.04A.020 Definitions

The following words and phrases as used in this chapter, unless the context clearly indicates otherwise, shall have the following meanings:

- A. "Agency" means any City board, commission, bureau, committee, department, institution, division or tribunal in City government.
- G. "City officer" means every individual elected, appointed, hired or otherwise selected to an office or position with the City, or any subdivision, agency, committee or board thereof, whether such individual is paid or unpaid.
- L. "Employee" means any person holding a regularly compensated position of employment with the City but does not include elected officers and persons who serve without compensation on City boards and commissions.
- O. "Gift" means anything of economic value or tangible worth for which no consideration is given. "Gift" does not include:
  - items from family members or friends where it is clear that the gift was not made as part of any design to gain or maintain influence in the agency of which the recipient is an officer or employee;
  - 2. items related to the outside business of the recipient that are customary and not related to the recipient's performance of official duties;
  - 3. items exchanged among officials and employees or a social event hosted or sponsored by a City officer or City employee for coworkers;
  - 4. payments by a governmental or nongovernmental entity of reasonable expenses incurred in connection with a speech, presentation, appearance or trade mission made in an official capacity. As used in this subsection, "reasonable expenses" are limited to travel, lodging and subsistence expenses incurred the day before through the day after the event;

- 5. items a City officer or City employee is authorized by law to accept;
- 6. payment of enrollment and course fees and reasonable travel expenses attributable to attending seminars and educational programs sponsored by a bona fide governmental or nonprofit professional, educational, trade or charitable association or institution. As used in this subsection, "reasonable expenses" are limited to travel, lodging and subsistence expenses incurred the day before through the day after the event;
- 7. items returned by the recipient to the donor within thirty days of receipt or donated to a charitable organization within thirty days of receipt;
- 8. campaign contributions reported under chapter 42.17 RCW;
- 9. discounts available to an individual as a member of an employee group, occupation or similar broad-based group;
- 10. awards, prizes, scholarships or other items provided in recognition of academic or scientific achievement;
- 11. attendance of a City officer or employee at a hosted meal when it is provided in conjunction with a meeting directly related to the conduct of City business or where official attendance by the officer or employee as a City representative is appropriate;
- 12. an award publicly presented in recognition of public service; or
- 13. any item of nominal value which cannot reasonably be presumed to influence the vote, action or judgment of the City officer or employee, or be considered as part of a reward for action or inaction. An item of nominal value shall include incidental items associated with the professional conduct or courtesies of a City officer or employee's duty including the acceptance during the conduct of official business of such items as refreshments, note pads, pens, pins and books.

Section 01.04A.030 Prohibited Conduct

The following shall constitute a violation of this Code of Ethics:

- A. General Prohibition Against Conflicts of Interest.
- B. Personal Interests in Contracts Prohibited.
- C. Remote Interest. [Allowed with recusal from decision making process]
- D. Personal Influence in Contract Selection Prohibited.
- E. Representation of Private Person [Third party] at City Proceeding Prohibited.
- F. Certain Private Employment Prohibited.
- G. Personal Interest in Legislation Prohibited.
- H. Continuing Financial Interest. [Very restricted, notifying firms of policy required]
- I. Disclosure of Confidential Information
- J. Acceptance of Compensation, Gifts, Favors, Rewards or Gratuity. City employees shall not, directly or indirectly, solicit any gift or give or receive any gift, whether it be money, services, loan, travel, entertainment, hospitality, promise, or any other form, under the following circumstances:
  - 1. It could be reasonably inferred or expected that the gift was intended to influence them in the performance of their official duties; or
  - 2. The gift was intended to serve as a reward for any official action on their part. Public officials and city employees may accept de minimis gifts such as, but not limited to, calendars, coffee mugs, flowers, candy, and other similar items that are given as a customary business practice and have no material significance to the recipient, with such gifts from any one source not to exceed one hundred dollars in value in any twelve-month period. City employees should report any gift to their immediate supervisor. This section shall not apply to gifts made to the city. All such gifts shall be given to the mayor for official disposition. This prohibition shall not apply to those items which are excluded from the definition of gift in SMC 1.04A.020.

- K. Fair and Equitable Treatment.
- L. False and Frivolous complaints prohibited.
- M. Aiding others prohibited.
